Easter Special Weekend

Friday 25th - Monday 28th March 2016

Easter falls just about as early as it can get this year and there are a few advantages to this arrangement. For instance the gap between New Year's Day (the last bank holiday) and Good Friday (the next bank holiday) is shorter – the Daffodils, Snow Drops and Crocuses could possibly still be in bloom giving us a splash of colour to herald the Spring – and anyway we have put together a fun weekend for you to enjoy – whatever the time of year. (or the state of the flowers, come to that!)

Good Friday 25th March

Dinner and Disco with Chris Snow Disco

Easter Saturday 26th March

We present a Dinner and Dance with The Covers Brothers

A classic four piece line up, the Covers Brothers play a range of music from the 50s to the present. Think Elvis Presley, Buddy Holly, Everly Brothers through to the 60s—The Searchers,

The May Bank Holiday / Loyalty Weekend

29th April – 2nd May 2016

“If it ain’t broke don’t fix it” is a grossly over-used phrase these days. However, in a world of constant change and innovation we think there is some virtue in clinging to the best of earlier presentations, so this weekend follows largely the pattern first set way back in the previous century! Now that sounds incredible doesn’t it?

Friday 29th April Dinner and Dance with The Sneakers
 Saturday 30th April Dinner and Dance with “The Beach Boys Band” a tribute band of course but playing all the fabulous numbers made famous back in the 1960’s. You will remember with great affection “Good Vibrations”, “God Only Knows”, “I Get Around”, “California Girl”, “Sloop John B” and many more, all played with amazing authenticity for you to listen to, dance to, sing along to, strum your fingers to – if none of the above please sit at the bar and order another drink! Simon’s Disco will fill in the gaps between the live music – it should be a “Fun, Fun, Fun” evening!

Sunday 1st May

Dinner and Dance with Todd Miller and the Joe Loss Orchestra and Singers – This great 12 piece orchestra was formed by Joe Loss in 1930 and has never been disbanded. Joe entrusted the leadership to Todd in 1990. Todd, who joined the orchestra in 1972, has continued the tradition of performing the best live entertainment for all generations. The orchestra has performed on 14 world tours, two Royal Weddings, many Royal Command Performances and premiers and is proud to have been presented to her Majesty the Queen on many different occasions. Nothing mimed, nothing tracked, Britain’s best musicians and singers performing totally live. Absolutely tremendous entertainment! Dinner Jackets preferred – as it is “The Spring Ball”, (but not essential)

Dinner and interval music – Graham Rowell on Piano. Besides the three evenings of super entertainment there will be the usual Loyalty Weekend extras – Lunch on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, afternoon tea and cakes each day, pre-dinner drinks in the bar each evening, flowers in the bedrooms – will all still be in place. With a build up like this I am hoping to hear the telephone ringing and the emails pinging any second now! In any case, please don’t leave it too long – many of the rooms were booked as guests departed last May or last November.

Summer Jazz Weekend 2016
Friday 1st – Sunday 3rd July

Jeremy Huggett will be hosting the weekend for us on this occasion and featuring his own very considerable skills with two of the four bands that we shall be featuring over the weekend.

On Friday 1st July we present the Steve Tucker All Star Jazz Band to open the weekend, playing from 8.30 to 11.30pm. They were a huge success on their first appearance at the Langstone last year and we are sure you will enjoy them just as much this July. Bags of energy from the whole band and very “dance-able”.

For the Saturday we introduce Pamela’s All Stars – no it is not an all-girl band – in fact there are no girls in this six man line up – however there are two Huggett’s! But I think we should let Jeremy explain the origins of this particular band.

Jeremy Huggett’s Band of Gold is our choice to entertain you on the Saturday Evening, led, but of course, by Jeremy himself. They are one of the UK’s top function and festival bands who will ensure that “everybody loves Saturday night”

The Sunday lunchtime spot features a Langstone favourite, Maggie Reedy with her Trio who will wind up the weekends proceedings.

There is a separate leaflet with much more information on the four participating bands available from reception or on the hotels website www.langstone-hotel.co.uk

Summer School Holidays
July 22nd – August 31st 2016

We commence the regular children’s entertainment programme on Friday 22nd July 2016. Although we say “children’s entertainment” we find that many of the adults enjoy it too, not just Mum and Dads, or Grandma and Grandad, even guests without children can often be spotted enjoying the show – and very welcome they are!

We have already covered the Spring Bank Holiday on page 5 of this brochure and for the summer holidays it is just about the same thing - times six!

If there are sufficient children in the hotel to make a Party, we will happily arrange entertainment at any time of the year. Same applies to adults as it happens!

Autumn Half-Term Special Weekend
Friday 21st – Sunday 23rd October 2016

Please be aware that Half Term dates may vary from one part of the country to another so please check your neck of the woods – if it matters anyway!

When checking entertainers’ availability for this particular weekend we found that two of the most favoured acts that we present are ... (roll of drums)... Kevin Bunclark of KB Sounds and Carnaby Street (“we are a rock and roll band – that’s what we do”). Search no more we said, and that is what we have booked.

KB Sounds will be with us on Friday 21st October and Carnaby Street will take the stage on Saturday 22nd October, backed by the Paul King Disco.

Contrasting styles but two fun evenings, the children will love it.
