Conditions of Sale.

1. The Highest Bidder to be the Purchaser, but should any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot in dispute shall be immediately put up again and resold, if the Auctioneers shall think fit. No Bidder to retract any Bidding. The Auctioneers shall have the right of regulating the amounts of the Bidding, of rejecting any Bidding, and of withdrawing or dividing any Lots, the Vendors or their Agents reserving a right to bid on every Lot.

2. All Lots shall, immediately after the fall of the hammer, be at the sole risk of their respective Purchasers, who shall, if required, give their names and places of abode and pay a deposit of twenty-five per cent. upon and in part payment of the Purchase Money. The whole of the Purchaser's Account must be paid to the Auctioneers before the Lots are cleared.

3. All Buyers shall cause their Lots to be removed on the day for delivery mentioned below, and for each Lot left uncleared after the time of clearing, one shilling per Lot daily will be charged and the Purchaser held liable to pay every expense attending the removal of the same.

4. Should any damage (by accident or otherwise) be done to the Premises whilst clearing away the Lots, such damage shall be made good by the Employer of the person causing such damage.

5. All Lots are believed to be correctly described, but no warranty is given or implied, and all Lots are sold subject to all errors in description or otherwise, and no allowance whatever will be made for any faults, deficiencies in quantities or measurements, or for any other cause whatsoever.

6. If any Purchaser fail to comply with all, or any of the above conditions, whatever money has been paid by such Purchaser towards any Lot or Lots shall be absolutely forfeited to the Vendors, who may, at their own discretion, keep the said Lot or Lots, or re-sell the same by Public Auction or Private Treaty, in which case the defaulters at this sale shall pay to the Vendors all loss and expenses consequent upon such re-sale, and should a larger price be made, the whole shall, nevertheless, belong to the Vendors at this sale.

7. All Purchasers shall remove their several Lots at their own expense between the hours of 9.30 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturday, March 2nd and between the hours of 9.30 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, March 4th and 5th, 1946.

8. Auctioneers Commission and Sale Expenses are charged to the Vendors.

9. Only approved Cheques accepted.
