How can being an Opportunist be so bad when the wine tastes this good?

The wines have at least five years on lees under cork before disgorgement. This fabulous Champagne has been described as having a “wonderful sparkling foam rising through a clear golden pinkish straw colour to whet the appetite. The scent is a fresh citrus and peach. "The amazing Cotes du Rhone St.-Esprit (75% Syrah and 25% Grenache) reveals a northern Rhone orientation, but it is loaded with spice and black fruits, and displays a beautiful opulent texture as well as a gorgeous finish with impressive purity. This great northern Rhone negociant, spearheaded by their brilliant oenologist and winemaker, Jacques Grange, has consistently made fabulous wines from the northern appellations, but only recently upgraded the quality of their southern Rhone selections. These are the finest southern Rhones they make, and their Cotes du Rhone St.-Esprit ranks alongside the offerings from Guigal and Chapoutier."

842 C PEPPOLI, CHIANTI CLASSICO 2006/7 13.00% £28.50
Antinori, Italy

The grapes of the Pèppoli estate in the Chianti Classico area were carefully selected during the harvest. After destemming and soft crushing the Sangiovese grapes were macerated in stainless steel vats for about 10 days. The Merlot and Syrah grapes were fermented separately with a shorter maceration period for fuller expression of the fruit. Once the Sangiovese, Merlot and Syrah were blended together the wine was placed in 55hl Slavonian oak barrels (and 10% in American oak barriques) for 9 months. Ageing in barriques enhanced the complexity of the wine's aromas while maturing in larger barrels preserved the fruity aromas from fermentation and sweetened the tannins. After ageing the wine was bottled and then aged in the bottles before release. This produces a wine with Intense red fruit aromas, especially redcurrants and raspberries, are amplified by light hints of vanilla and coffee sensations. This full-bodied wine is pleasantly lingering with soft, sweet tannins. Best drunk while still young for full expression of the fruit.

Delas Freres, Rhone, France

A classic red wine from one of the most famous regions in France. Based on the Grenache grape, rich and dark, warmed by the traditional pudding stones or "Gallettes" surrounding the vines. Truly excellent red wine. The colour is a deep garnet-red. The nose of the "Haute Pierre" cuvée is characterised by strong spicy aromas, which show a rich, powerful body wrapped around with a more delicate yet tightly knit tannic framework. Rich and unctuous on the palate, the finish reveals some intense, liquorice-like flavours.
