This will be the sixteenth consecutive Summer Jazz Weekend here at the Langstone Cliff Hotel and this year there is a major change Denise and Tony have retired and we have Jeremy Huggett taking up the reins.

JEREMY HUGGETT'S BAND OF GOLD

Band of Gold is one of the UK's top function and festival bands playing a mixture of traditional & mainstream jazz, swing, bossa novas, and a dash of blues.

The Devon based band is led by young virtuoso Jeremy Huggett. A recent UK award winner for best reed player, Jeremy clearly demonstrates his skill and maturity on all the saxophones, flute & vocals. Since its birth in 1997 the Band has been in great demand and has worked extensively at jazz venues, weddings, private parties and corporate events throughout the UK and Europe. They have also appeared at all the major UK jazz festivals including Bude, Teignmouth, Birmingham, Keswick, Cork and the Old Duke

Jazz Festival in Bristol.

They are no strangers to the studio having recorded several CDs, appeared live on BBC radio and launched BBC Music Live (2000) on BBC National Television. They have also had extensive airplay on BBC Radio & independent radio stations throughout the UK.

Band of Gold has worked with a number of international guest stars including Jim Fryer (Trombone), Roy Williams (Trombone), Digby Fairweather (Trumpet), Enrico Tomasso (Trumpet), Yanus Carmello (Trumpet) and Carlos Ward (Saxophone).

MAGGIE REEDAY TRIO

Maggie Reeday is one of the country's finest vocalists, and has worked in both Television, and Radio over the years, also with some of the greatest international Jazz musicians.

Maggie's style is unique, as she portrays not only some of the tunes from the Great American song book but her smokey voice lends itself to Blues, and more Soulful Jazz. She has an engaging style with the audience, and a wonderful sense of fun.

Maggie has had the good fortune to work with not only many of the finest local musicians but also many international artistes, including Mark Nightingale, Scott Hamilton, Digby Fairweather and many more, on a regular basis, in a variety of line-ups, to accommodate a wide range of musical styles, and situations....not to be missed !

THE STEVE TUCKER ALL STAR JAZZ BAND

"The Steve Tucker All Star Jazz Band brings breath-taking fresh life to the jazz classics of the era. The melodic, versatile voice of Steve is underpinned by the dynamic energy, passion and sensitivity of a very experienced front line combining with the powerful, driving, tight, swinging rhythm section. This Westcountry based jazz band eminently suitable for dancing have played at many top festivals and have released many Cd's, the last being recorded at this jazz weekend last year. We are looking forward to them playing again at the Langstone Cliff Hotel.

Steve Tucker – Double Bass and Vocals
 Angus Thomson – Trumpet
 Dave Vaughan – Reeds
 Terry Williams - Trombone
 Jim Newton – Drums/ Percussion
 John Broad - Guitar
 James Clemas – Piano

PAMELA'S ALL STARS

The Band was inspired by the late Pam Huggett in collaboration with Band Leader Bob Reynolds – having 2 musicians in the family, Bob thought it was only fair that Pam should have a role in the jazz scene so she was appointed the band's "musical director". The 6 piece Band was formed 3 years ago and features Jeremy Huggett on lead soprano saxophone and Brian Huggett on clarinet & saxophones. With their distinctive sound, enthusiasm and liking for popular and well-loved tunes the band quickly established a strong following and are in demand appearing at jazz clubs and festivals throughout the UK.
