INVESTORS IN PEOPLE

Parts of Langstone Cliff House as it was then known were built around 1750 and it remained a private “gentlemen’s residence” until 1946 when it became The Langstone Cliff Private Hotel, opening with 12 bedrooms and two bathrooms - a very acceptable proportion in those days – by Stanley and Marjorie Rogers.

The first printed Christmas “programme” that we can lay our hands on was for 1951, it contained the menus for Christmas Day and Boxing Day, nothing else. Here we are in 2018 - over 70 years later and desperately trying to write something original with which to encourage you to book.

Then again, why does it have to be “original”?

The Christmas season is what it is. It is traditional, it is a celebration, it is a happy time with friends and family.

We all tend to spoil those close to us with gifts, we indulge ourselves with possibly too much food and maybe a drink or two, and if there is a little entertainment to enjoy, shall we do that too?

So perhaps we don’t need to be original - please join us and let’s just enjoy this wonderful time of the year as we have done for these many years..

Christmasmassey Sundays

2nd, 9th, 16th and 23rd December 2018

Christmasmassey Sundays have maintained their popularity over many years here at the Langstone. We believe this is due, in no small measure, to the fact that we stick to the traditional format that everyone knows and enjoys at this happy time of year. Lunch is served between 12.30 and 2.00pm.

Our "magical piano" sets the mood with seasonal songs and carols. Good quality hats and crackers ensure a party atmosphere through lunch. The Children's Entertainment with Merlin keeps the kids amused for an hour or so before tea and cakes.
