

The date varies with the calendar, of course, but the first weekend in May, the May Day Bank Holiday Weekend, has been the “Langstone Loyalty Weekend” for many years now. To an extent the entertainment is repeated, the principal hotel staff team remain by and large the same, the Family ownership - by hook and by crook, remains the same though the generations are increasing.

The menus are not exactly the same, but certainly much the same style, in fact the whole weekend sounds quite boring doesn't it? So how come it is our fastest filling event of the year? It has overtaken Christmas, Easter, New Year, August, what is the attraction? The answer is self evident - it is you our wonderful guests.

We all love having you here, the “family” look forward to it, the staff enjoy serving you, and you obviously enjoy one another's company or it would not fill up so quickly and so regularly. The entertainment programme is presented follows.

The usual Loyalty Weekend “extras” - lunch on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, afternoon tea and cakes each day, pre-dinner drinks in the bar each evening, flowers in the bedrooms and other “Loyalty” touches - will all still be in place. With a build up like this we are hoping to hear the telephone ringing and the emails pinging any second now! In any case, please don't leave it too long - many of the rooms were booked as guests departed last May or last November.
