

Celebrating 80 Years of

Langstone Cliff Hotel

May Bank Holiday Weekend

Friday 30th April - Monday 3rd May 2027

Since welcoming our first guests in 1947 there have been many changes from a 12 bedroom hotel to the 64 ensuite bedrooms we have now. The full history can be found in our 50th and 60th anniversary brochures.

Since 2007 we have built the very popular Orchid Room, restored our greenhouse to it's former glory and hosted a continuously rolling programme of renewing the furnishings, decor and updating bathrooms and bedrooms.

The hotel is still owned and managed by the Rogers family – generations two and three – and, believe it or not, still visited by some of the guests whom we hosted over fifty years ago. It is particularly gratifying that over 80% of our guests pay us return visits.

And this incredible loyalty is not just confined to our guests. We are proud to say that the vast majority of our staff also acquire the "Langstone Habit" and combine with the "Family" to offer a friendly attentive and very sincere welcome.

But that's enough about us. In the words of Geoff

'What would our hotel be without you, our regular guests and friends? You really are the important ingredient, you create the atmosphere, you make the fun and you leave the memories. Thank you all so very much.'

CARNABY STREET have been wowing crowds up and down the UK's gig scene for nigh on 26 years now.....and for anyone who's been to one of their shows , it's not difficult to see why! The hugely popular 'Swingin' Sixties Tribute Band' have the sort of enthusiastic, infectious energy you don't see with many bands these days. It's as if every gig is their first!

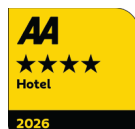

Led by the dulcet tones of charismatic frontman Dez, their repertoire ranges from classic songs from the early 60's 'British Invasion' era, through to the deliriously groovy 'Flower Power' hits from later in the decade.

Firm favourites here at the Langstone, this five piece Exeter based band presents a very lively set of sixties based music, very danceable and authentic sounding - you will know every number they play.
